AND whereas by the [said[1]] Fifteenth and Sixteenth Acts of the last Session of the last Parliament of Scotland the Sum of Two hundred thirty two thousand eight hundred and eighty four Pounds Five Shillings and Two Third Parts of a Peny is designed and appropriated for Payment of the Sums due to the African and Indian Company of Scotland out of the Equivalent according to the Accounts ordered to be made by the Directors of the said Company And also whereas the Accounts given in by them do fall short of the aforesaid Sum of Two hundred thirty two thousand eight hundred and eighty four Pounds Five Shillings and Two Third Parts of a Peny in the Sum of Seven hundred and twenty one Pounds Eight Shillings and Five Six Parts of a Peny Sterling whereby the same falls now to be disposable for other Uses And whereas the said Directors of the Indian and African Company have been put to very considerable Charges in making up the said Accounts and in employing Clerks and others necessary for that Service which Expences do far exceed the Three hundred Pounds allowed them by the aforesaid Fifteenth Act Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That out of the aforesaid Sum of Seven hundred twenty one Pounds Eight Shillings and Five Six Parts of a Peny Sterling there be paid by the aforesaid Commissioners of the Equivalent to the said Directors or their Order the Sum of Five hundred Pounds Sterling And as to the Remainder of the aforesaid Sum of Seven hundred twenty one Pounds Eight Shillings and Five Six Parts of a Peny Sterling that out of the same the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds shall be paid by the said Commissioners of the Equivalent to Mr. Alexander Cunningham in Satisfaction to him of the like Sum advanced and paid out by him while he was employed by His late Majesty King William of glorious Memory for negotiating certain Publick Affairs concerning Scotland and that the Remainder of the said Sum of Seven hundred twenty one Pounds eight Shillings and Five Six Parts of a Peny Sterling shall be applied to the same Uses and in the Manner contained in the said Sixteenth Act.

II. Reasons for passing this Act.

AND whereas the said Conservators having much improved the Navigation on the said River to the great Ease and Advantage of Her Majesties Subjects near the said River in the said County and the Preservation of the Highways there and have also pursuant to the Trust reposed in them by the said Act diligently applied themselves to the making the said River navigable and have in Part accomplished the same but have not rendred it completely navigable at all Times for want of sufficient cleansing digging and deepening the Channel in a certain Shoal called Broad Shoal and erecting a Lock or Half Lock at or near a certain Place called Round Island below a Bridge or Place called Knapp Bridge for the Performance whereof it will be necessary to advance and expend a considerable Sum of Money notwithstanding the great Sum already disbursed by the said Conservators in the said Work which by an Account taken stated and allowed by the Justices at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Bridgwater the Seventeenth Day of July last for the said County of Somerset appears to have been Three thousand five hundred sixty six Pounds Nine Shillings and Five Pence Farthing by which Account it also appears that the annual Income arising by Payments charged by the said Account on all Vessels navigated on the said River is not sufficient to pay the Interest of the said Sum of Money already laid out by the said Conservators towards making the said River navigable to be raised under the Powers of the said Stat. 10 W. III. c. 8.

IV. The Conservators empowered to erect the said Lock, &c, as by the said former Act.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Conservators and their Successors or the major Part of them are hereby authorized and impowered to erect such Lock or Half Lock and to cleanse and make navigable such Shoal called Broad Shoal in like Manner as by the said recited Act they are thereby authorized and impowered to do in or near any other Part of the said River on making Satisfaction to the Owner of such Lands in such Manner as the said recited Act is directed Any thing herein or in the said former Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding

Any Statute Law Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. Reasons for passing this Enactment.

AND forasmuch as several Disputes and Controversies since making the said former Act have risen upon Construction of some doubtful Words therein whether Watermen, Boatmen or Bargemen and others navigating Vessels on the said River might go upon the Lands of any Person adjoining to the said River between the said Town of Taunton and Ham Mills and by the Strength of Men Horses or other Cattle going upon the Banks or Ground near the said River draw or hale up Boats Barges and other Vessels through the said River or Passage before such Time as the said Conservators had set out a Path or Way for that Purpose and had made Satisfaction for the same to the Owner or Owners of the Land upon which such Path or Way shall be set out for the Loss or Damage he shall sustain thereby for explaining thereof Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid That it shall not be lawful to and for any Watermen Boatmen Bargemen or other Persons navigating Vessels on the said River to go upon the Lands of any Person or Persons adjoyning to the said River between the said Town of Taunton [and'] Ham Mills and by the Strength of Men Horses or other Cattle going upon the Banks or Ground near the said River to draw or hale Boats Barges and other Vessels through the said River or Passage before and until such Time as the said Conservators shall have set out a Path or Way for that Purpose and for the same shall have made Recompence or Satisfaction to the Owner or Owners thereof for his her or their Loss or Damage hereby according to the Method prescribed by the said recited Act Any thing herein or in the said recited Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding
